

WOODHOUSE MOUNTAIN LODGE

AT KŌURAWHERO ESTATE

Located on 100 acres of private land known as Kōurawhero Estate, the Lodge is the ideal escape from the hectic pressures of day-to-day life. Offering unpretentious service in a paradise-like setting and set high above surrounding land, privacy is guaranteed, and views extend as far as the Hauraki Gulf.

Each of our 18 Villa's enjoy private views across the Lodge grounds towards the vineyards of the Matakana Coast and to the sea and the islands of the Hauraki Gulf. Nestled amongst landscaped grounds with beautiful native tree plantings, the setting is conducive to total relaxation.

Dining at our in-house restaurant is an inspiring experience with ingredients carefully selected from local and regional sources and crafted to delight and surprise. Our executive chef is the creator of divine food taken from whatever nature has given us, enhancing it to make sure everything on the plate is beautiful and well balanced.

Events & Meetings

Offering corporate clients & event guests something a little different to the usual meeting space and when exclusivity and a complete "break from the office" type of environment is required; look no further than Woodhouse Mountain Lodge. Perfect for executive meetings, presentations, team building and private celebrations.

The Conference Room

The Conference Room is in the main Lodge on the lower ground floor. A comfortable and quiet space, it can cater for up to 30 delegates in a variety of room configurations.

The Meeting Room

Adjacent to the Conference Room, the Meeting Room is well suited to small groups of up to 6 people and can also be used as a break-out room from the main meeting room.

The Barn

The Barn is a venue with character and is well suited to private parties, retreat workshops, and more as it is a standalone building away from the main Lodge. 180sqm of space and seating for up to 60 people, this flexible and generous space can be easily configured to meet your meeting or event requirements.
